Yan Translation -- Your Chinese Solution!

Who We Are

Yan Translation is a Chinese language solution provider based in Shanghai, China; a group of native speakers of professional translators, localizers, senior linguists, and DTP specialists specialized in various fields.

Our clients are coming back to us because we handle every project, no matter what its size is, with experienced translators specialized in that field only; because of our QA system to ensure top quality, and our flexibility with prompt and friendly response.

With our professional efforts, your translation and localization projects will be more successful and cost-effective.

What We Offer

We have been selected as the Chinese language vendor by both American and European firms and have contributed our turnkey efforts in various projects including translation, localization,

QA linguistic review, project management, and DTP services.

The full package of services we offer will be the ideal solution for your globalization and localization needs. With the assistance of our associates, we also provide the following language combinations:

Western languages	Asian languages
English	Simplified Chinese
German	Traditional Chinese
French	Japanese
Spanish	Korean
Italian	Vietnamese

Why Yan Translation

To provide an accurate sense of understanding and expressing the language you need native speakers. Changing trends are sometimes apparent only to those who live in the country and these changes are paramount to accurate translation. Chinese language is complex; the culture is also complex. The translators at Yan Translation will help sort out these complexities for your company and make dealing in the Chinese market a viable choice.

Our staff comprises language experts in China and experienced professionals in the United States. Yan Translation is an inter-continental firm and an example of inter-continental cooperation to help you address the barrier of language.

Yan Translation -- Your Chinese Solution!

Our Procedure

Usually a translation project will go through these steps:

- (1) Receive translation material or sample for evaluation
- (2) Send quote
- (3) Receive confirmed order from client
- (4) Contact translator(s) in related industry to start translation
- (5) Translator(s) submit finished work
- (6) Translation proofread by a senior linguist.
- (7) Final editing by an in-house translator
- (8) Submit final translation to the client.

Please contact us for a detailed workflow chart.

Our Price

We have a range of rates depending on language combination, volume, turnaround, specialty involved, and software requirements. Please send us your document to be translated (or sample) to get a free quote.

We offer additional discounts to regular customers and large volume projects. No job is too large or too small for us and we are swift to respond.
