Yan Translation -- Your Chinese Solution!

What We Offer

We have been selected as the Chinese language vendor by both American and European firms and have contributed our turnkey efforts in various projects including translation, localization, QA linguistic review, project management, and DTP services.

The full package of services we offer will be the ideal solution for your globalization and localization needs. With the assistance of our associates, we can provide the following language combinations:

| Western languages | Asian languages     |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| English           | Simplified Chinese  |
| German            | Traditional Chinese |
| French            | Japanese            |
| Spanish           | Korean              |
| Italian           | Vietnamese          |

Our Price

We have a range of rates depending on language combination, volume, turnaround, specialty involved, and software requirements. Please send us your document to be translated (or sample) to get a free quote.

We offer additional discounts to regular customers and large volume projects. No job is too large or too small for us and we are swift to respond.

Why Yan Translation

To provide an accurate sense of understanding and expressing the language you need native speakers. Changing trends are sometimes apparent only to those who live in the country and these changes are paramount to accurate translation. Chinese language is complex; the culture is also complex. The translators at Yan Translation will help sort out these complexities for your company and make dealing in the Chinese market a viable choice.

Our staff comprises language experts in China and experienced professionals in the United States. Yan Translation is an inter-continental firm and an example of inter-continental cooperation to help you address the barrier of language.

Our Procedure

Usually a translation project will go through these steps:

- (1) Receive translation material or sample for evaluation
- (2) Send quote
- (3) Receive confirmed order from client
- (4) Contact translator(s) in related industry to start translation
- (5) Translator(s) submit finished work
- (6) Translation proofread by a senior linguist.
- (7) Final editing by an in-house translator
- (8) Submit final translation to the client.

Please contact us for a detailed workflow chart.
